

Integral Intervention addressed to women victims of Trafficking in Human Beings (THB) for Exploitation

Adoratrices

The religious order Adoratrices was founded in the 19th century in response to the demand of women involved in prostitution environments.

Currently present in 23 countries, it deals with a range of social exclusion situations that affect women, including human trafficking.

Mission

- Adoratrius is a social non profit religious organization that provides care to women in situations of exclusion.
- In Catalonia, since 2002, Adoratrius develops SICAR cat, which provides comprehensive support program for women who are victims of trafficking in human beings (THB) for recovery and restitution of their rights. It also carries out awareness campaigns and advocacy actions in order to contribute to social change.

Vision

- Achieve economic sustainability of the program with diversified funds.
- Consolidate an action protocol established with different actors involved in combating trafficking and protecting victims.
- Strengthen our structure for integrating ourselves in Fundació Amaranta but maintaining the particularities.
- Keep presence and voice in key institutions and leadership in the field of trafficking in Catalonia.
- Continue generating knowledge systematically.
- Consolidate a cohesive, efficient and proactive interdisciplinary team.

Trafficking in Human Beings

- Actions:

The recruitment, transportation, transfer, harboring or receipt of persons

- Means:

Includes threat or use of force, deception, coercion, abuse of power or position of vulnerability

- Purpose:

It is always exploitation. In the words of the Trafficking Protocol, article 3 "exploitation shall include sexual exploitation, forced labor or services, slavery or practices similar to slavery, servitude or the removal of organs

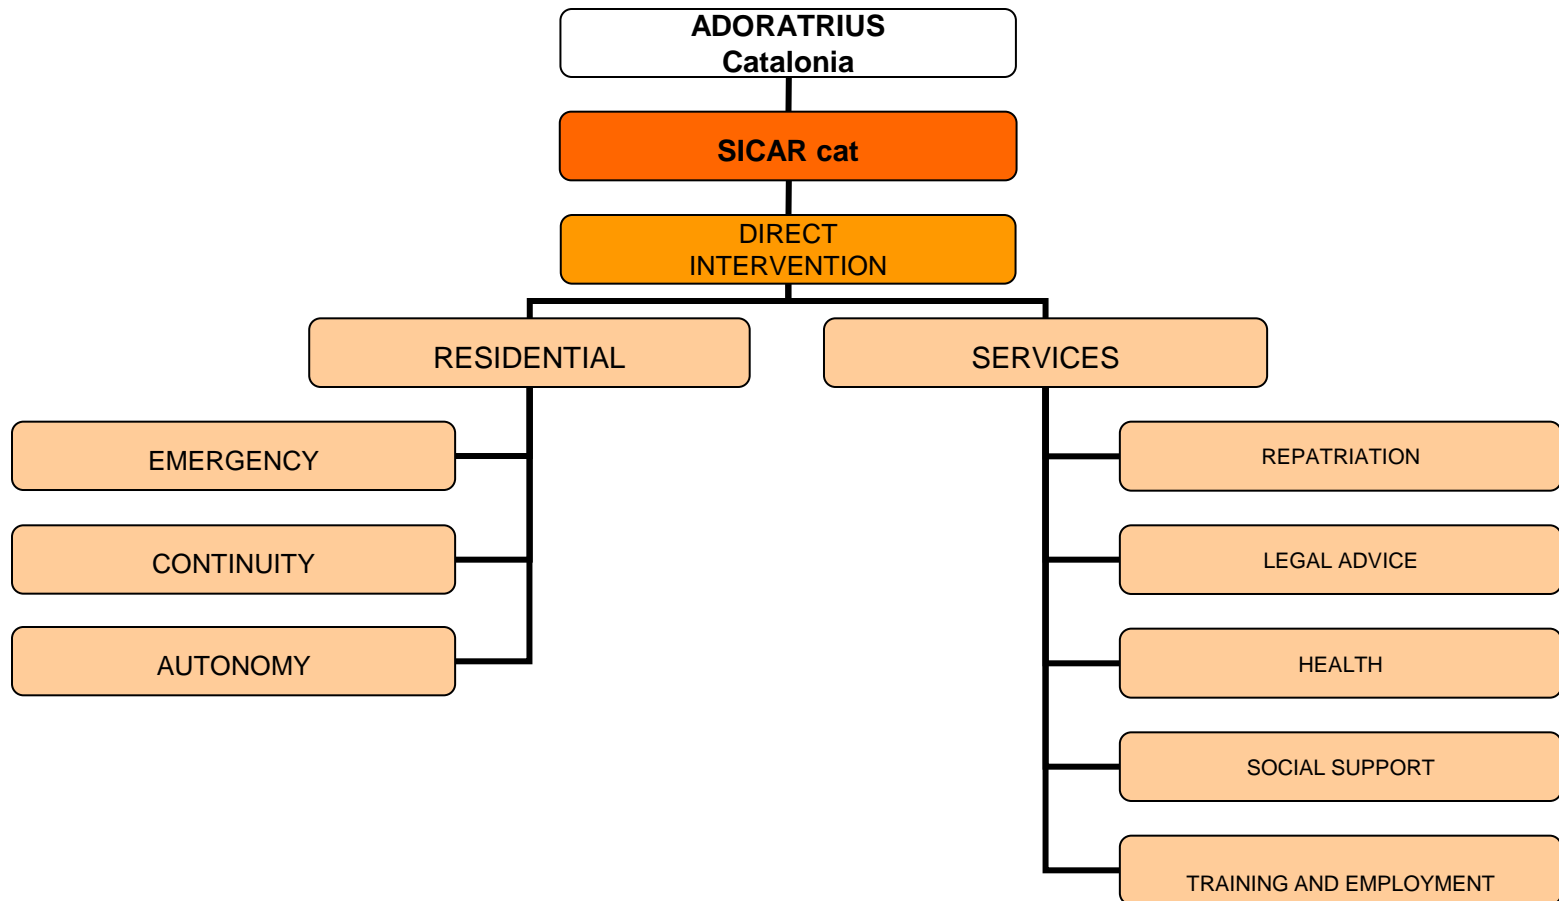

Consent: It becomes irrelevant whenever any of the 'means' of trafficking are used. A child cannot consent even if the 'means' are not involved.

Contact

- We respond to the demands of attention and identification of different social agents (Police, NGOs, private citizen, Public Services, Adoratrices Projects,..) that detect women victims of trafficking or potential victims

Admission and Referral Criteria

- It is not necessary for women to report their situation in order to be incorporated into the project (although they are informed of the advantages and disadvantages involved in doing so).
- Women may be admitted as emergency cases.
- When women have been referred by another organisation/service, the latter will provide a social report.
- Before being admitted, we make a personal interview outside of the project's facilities (whenever possible).
- Women who are not in a seriously mental health situation and whose mental and emotional states will allow them to live as part of a group and play a role in the process.
- Those who are admitted must accept the rules and responsibilities required by the programme and must maintain the anonymity of the service.
